

DEATH IN THE LIBRARY

MARCH 1, 2025

6:30 P.M

JOHNSTOWN FLOOD MUSEUM

304 WASHINGTON ST, JOHNSTOWN

This evening, at the Old Cambria Library, JR Hartley is scheduled to talk about his latest book, 'Fly Fishing in Southwestern Pennsylvania'. However, before the book signing could commence, JR Hartley was discovered dead in the Local History section, trapped between the moving shelves!

Who could have wanted this harmless man dead, and why?

In teams of 4 to 6 members, you'll watch the story play out before your eyes, throughout the Johnstown Flood Museum – and try to solve the mystery! Directed by Tamera Gindlesperger-Fisher and Rebekah Hurley, the all-star cast includes Ben Berkebile, Kate Davis, Christina Fosbrink, Sam Johns, and Troy Smajda who will enact the story – along with our celebrity detective, Marty Radovanic, who will be on hand to reveal the solution.

Throughout the evening you'll enjoy heavy hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar; you'll be entertained by live jazz during the cocktail hour. 1930s era-appropriate attire encouraged!
